

Marshall Melhorn Response to COVID-2019

To our clients and friends:

During these challenging circumstances, we want to let you know that the attorneys at Marshall Melhorn remain willing and able to help you and your organizations any way that we can.

In an effort to help fight the coronavirus, Marshall Melhorn instructed the majority of our employees to work from home and to only come into our offices as necessary. Our technology allows us to remain open for business and allows you to contact Marshall Melhorn as you normally would (via phone, email, or otherwise).

We are closely monitoring the outbreak and the related challenges facing our clients and our communities. Our attorneys are attacking the variety of legal issues that have come to the forefront as a result of the pandemic, including labor and employment, wage and hour, real estate, insurance, creditor/debtor, and M&A. If you have any questions about the pandemic, please reach out to Marshall Melhorn as you normally would.

By taking these and other measures, Marshall Melhorn hopes that we can help keep everyone safe while continuing to support and counsel our clients.

Sincerely,
Marshall Melhorn
